

Library Manager's report:

Nipomo Library is excited to offer the Reader's Theater play: The Dunites, about an odd assortment of characters who called the Nipomo/Oceano Dunes home in the early decades of the 20th century. Candy will be playing Historian I, Community members will be reading parts for Historian II; Gavin Arthur, President Chester Alan Arthur's grandson; and Ella Young, a local poet and Celtic literature lecturer from Ireland. I will be reprising my role as George the Evangelist.

I would like to thank you for helping to plan the 20th anniversary celebration for this building, Saturday September 24th, from 4 - 6pm. See handout: 20 years/20 Freebies.

In October we will be offering a watercolor painting workshop (class is full) and our first Controversies in Film showing and discussion on Thursday October 13 at 3pm and 6pm, with the film: The Secrets of Mary Magdalene.

Our Second Annual Pumpkin Decorating Contest begins with a pumpkin decorating workshop October 15. Pumpkins will be on display from October 15 - 29.
